

Redbird Rookies Saigh Scholarship $10,000 for Postsecondary Education

What is the Redbird Rookies Saigh Scholarship?

The Redbird Rookies Saigh Scholarship is a $10,000 scholarship that supports the postsecondary education of up to ten students who participated in the Redbird Rookies youth baseball league the summer after completing 7th grade.

The scholarship is named after Fred Saigh, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals from 1947 to 1953, in recognition of Mr. Saigh's leadership and the Saigh Foundation's generous support of Cardinals Care.

The purpose of the Redbird Rookies Saigh Scholarship is to recognize the achievements of individuals who have demonstrated success in the classroom and as a team member by providing financial assistance toward the student's continuing education.

Each award recipient will demonstrate outstanding integrity, confidence, leadership and teamwork as a Redbird Rookies team member as well as the strength of character, attitude, and promise that define a successful graduate of Redbird Rookies.

Recipient Responsibility to Maintain Eligibility

Students who are selected for the Redbird Rookies Saigh Scholarship recipients must do the following during their high school years:

- 1. Maintain a minimum 2.5 grade point average (on a 4.0 grading scale), with a good attendance record and submit a transcript at the end of each academic year of high school
- 2. Volunteer 20 hours each summer during high school with a Redbird Rookies league or other volunteer opportunities in the community and submit a copy of the volunteer hours to the St. Louis Community Foundation at the end of each summer.

HOW TO APPLY!

The summer between 7th & 8th grades, ask your coach how to apply for the Redbird Rookies Saigh Scholarship!
